

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1892.

NO. 30

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Rev. C. M. Reid will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

—The Juvenile entertainment, given at the College chapel Tuesday evening, was largely attended. It proved very enjoyable and their teacher, Miss Hattie Marrs, deserves great praise.

—Cavins Boner, son of John C. Boner, died at his home in Marksburg Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock. He was a bright and handsome boy and had been a great sufferer for many months. The funeral services were held at the Fork church, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the remains interred in the Fork cemetery.

—It would be well if there could be a constitutional amendment extending the presidential term to six years, and rendering the incumbent ineligible thereafter. The constantly recurring elections keep the country in a constant state of excitement; business is deranged; men go wild over the scramble for office and millions of dollars are expended for political purposes. Not only so, but in the whirlpool of excitement attending conventions, the Sabbath is notoriously desecrated and men, ordinarily disposed to be prudent, lose their heads and act as though their prudence had given way to their passions and prejudices.

—The Christian church was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers, Wednesday morning, when our four charming graduates read in a pleasing manner their splendid essays. The programme was as follows:

PRAYER.

MUSIC.

Piano Duett May Gazza ladra..... Rossini
Miss May Hughes, Prof. Koester.

Essay—"To Live in Hearts we Leave Behind, is not to Die".....

Miss Bessie Davis, Hebron, Ky.

Essay—"I Lift Mine Eyes and what to See, a World Happy and Fair".....

Miss Bessie White, Alexandria, Ky.

MUSIC.

Vocal Trio, "The Holiday"..... Conceno
Essay—"Sculptors of Life are We".....

Miss Jennie Perkins, Marksburg, Ky.

Essay—"Let Us Cull the Roses Within our Reach".....

Miss Oliver Marrs, Danville, Ky.

Address—To the Class.....

Eld. J. C. Frank.

Conferring Degrees, Delivering Dipsomas.....

President J. C. Gordon.

BENEDICTION.

—Mrs. Fred Lippold, of Louisville, is visiting Mrs. Blanche Sweeney. Miss Delta Hughes has returned from Marksburg. Mr. Tom Bush, of Denver, Colo., is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Bush. Miss Bernice Baughman is visiting Miss Jennie Arnold. Mr. Louis Walker, of Richmond College, has returned home. Misses Bessie Davis and Mary Rice, accompanied by Messrs. Bob Embry and Owen Stevens, visited Hustonville this week. Willie Woodcock, Jack Dilley and Harry Whitthorne, of Danville, attended the commencement exercises Wednesday morning. Mrs. Hattie Woldridge and daughter, Mary, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Reid, on Richmond avenue. Mrs. R. L. Grinnan has returned to Cynthiana, accompanied by her two nieces, Misses Lillie Chairs and Eugenia Bush.

—Hon. William Fessenden Vilas, of Wisconsin, who has been mentioned in connection with the nomination for the presidency by the democratic convention at Chicago, will be 52 years of age July 9, 1892. He was secretary of the interior under Mr. Cleveland and if Mr. Cleveland should not receive the nomination, it is quite likely that his strength will be thrown to Col. Vilas. He is now a U. S. Senator and stands high in that body. As a speaker, he ranks among the ablest in the Nation and his character is as pure as his patriotism has been conspicuous. Col. Vilas served under Gen. W. J. Landram as captain of the 23d Wisconsin in the Army of the Tennessee and also a lieutenant colonel of that famous regiment. He was noted for his modesty, prompt attention to duty and gallantry upon the field. At the battle of Sabine Cross Roads in Louisiana he served on the staff of Gen. Landram and was specially mentioned in his report in the most complimentary terms. At a reunion of the Army of the Tennessee at Chicago he carried off the honors of the evening in a magnificent address, in which he had as contestants Robert G. Ingersoll, Stewart L. Woodford and others. He is a handsome, well preserved man and would fill any position he might accept with credit to himself and honor to the Nation.

—Mrs. Rogers, living near Winfield, W. Va., while sitting by the bedside of her husband, who was supposed to be dying with consumption, was struck by lightning and killed. The husband was unharmed.

The following item, clipped from the Ft. Madison, Iowa, Democrat, contains information well worth remembering: "Mr. John Smith, of this city, who was a soldier a few days ago, sprained and bruised his leg and arm quite severely, was cured by one 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm." This remedy is without an equal for sprains and bruises and should have a place in every household. For sale by Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.

DANVILLE.

—Maggie, W. G. Proctor's little daughter, whose illness has been noted, was thought to be better at noon to day.

—The marriage of Miss Annie Baughman, of Lincoln county, and Mr. Monte Fox, of Danville, is announced for the 15th inst.

—Ex Gov. "Bob" Taylor, of Tennessee, is advertised for a lecture here Thursday evening. Subject, "The Fiddle and the Bow."

—Judge McFerran finally dismissed, Tuesday, the charge of ku-kluxing Mike Cullen, preferred against Lee Vanarsdall and Charles King.

—Mr. Nath Woodcock and family have moved from the Gilcher House and now have rooms with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dunn, on Main street.

—At the Hoggard Academy declamation contest Thursday night the medal was awarded to John Gaines Moss, son of Mr. Ray Moss, of this county.

—Mr. W. P. Scott, in the employ of Hackney & Scott, Thursday morning fell from Wallace's new house, on the Shakertown pike, and was painfully hurt about the head.

—Mr. Henry Read, wife and child, of Fort Smith, Ark., are among the commencement visitors. Mr. Read graduated here in 1883. He is a nephew of Mr. J. Boyle Read, of this county.

—Mrs. R. J. Breckinridge entertained a large number of young people Wednesday night at the home of Mr. Boyle Read, in honor of Miss Lizzie Read, the only graduate from Morrison Academy this year.

—Prof. L. Eddy informs the I. J. that since last week all the telephone troubles have been settled, that all the discontinued offices will be re-established and that private persons can make the same arrangements as heretofore.

—Dr. M. M. Leech, veterinary surgeon, has bought D. P. Rowland's residence on Main street for $2,300. He will put up a horse infirmary on the portion of the lot which fronts on Pine street. Mr. Rowland has bought from Mr. Metcalf a lot on Harrodsburg avenue and will soon build a dwelling thereon.

—Startling rumors are afloat that the colored troops of Danville are going to "boycourt" every white individual who "signed the separate coach bill." It is generally supposed that no man's signature was necessary to make the bill a law except that of Gov. John Young Brown. However, the c. t. m. may have information on the subject that other people have not.

—The city council met Wednesday night and proceeded to "persecute poor people" some more by passing an iron clad dog law to take effect July 1. All dogs of all ages, sexes and previous conditions of servitude, are to be killed unless they appear on the streets properly rabid. If the council would only reflect, she would realize that a good supply of dogs is half the living of poor people.

—The 60th annual commencement exercises of Centre College began Sunday morning with the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. J. M. Worrall, D. D. His text was from Luke 12:42. His argument went to show our accountability according to our opportunities. In the evening Dr. Hamilton, of Warren Memorial church, Louisville, preached a sermon to the Young Men's Christian Association, connected with the College. Monday night the oratorical contest was decided by Mr. Thomas McWilliams receiving the first and Mr. J. H. Swango the second prize. Tuesday night Hon. Boyd Winchester, of Louisville, of the class of 1856, addressed the alumni at the Second Presbyterian church. Tuesday night, after the Winchester address, the "Phi" society gave an elegant banquet prepared by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church, at the Clemens House. Dr. Worrall presided and toasts were responded to by Judge Thomas Phister, of Maysville, Mr. Dwight Marble, of Louisville, Mr. Frank Kinney, of Central University, Mr. F. T. Swope, of Louisville, and Rev. C. B. H. Martin, D. D., of Danville. Wednesday beginning at 10 A. M.

—The final exercises were held at the Second Presbyterian church and according to the following programme: Music, prayer, music. Oration, "Never give up," Eugene Wilbur Cook; music; disquisition, Shall we distrust? Henry Livingstone Godsey; music; dissertation, The desire of all nations, Edward Virgil Spicer; music; oration, What we owe to Columbus, John Elmer Turner; music; valedictory, William Jennings Price; music; conferring of degrees; music; benediction; music.

GRADUATING CLASS.

Valedictory—William Jennings Price, Danville.

Orations—Eugene Wilbur Cook, Danville; John Elmer Turner, Berry's Lick.

Dissertations—William Stephen Burch, Stanford; John Ray Honey, Paris; Harry

Beverly Irvine, Danville; Edward Virgil Spicer, Ghent.

Disquisitions—Louis Bryan, Windom; Henry Livingstone Godsey, Hazel Green; George Howe Green, Danville; William Woolfolk Johnson, Danville; William Scott Lawwill, Shelby City; Thomas Prather, Nicholas, Shelbyville.

Essays—James Reed Curry—Harrington; John Harkins Johns, Prestonsburg; Patrick Joyce, Louisville.

Certificates—Francis Breckinridge Douglas, Lexington; Calvin Morgan Fackler, Danville; Edwin LaFayette Van Winkle, Danville; John David Zeigler, Frankfort.

The Boyle prize, a gold watch, was given Albert H. McLure, of Frankfort. The Ormand Beatty prize (interest on $1,000) was divided between E. W. Cook, W. J. Price and J. E. Turner.

The degree of L. L. D. was conferred on H. T. Eddy, president of Rose Polytechnic Institute, Terre Haute, Ind., D. D. on Rev. Wm. S. Plummer Bryan, pastor of the 2d Presbyterian church, Cincinnati, P. H. D. on Miss Leila McKee, principal of Oxford, Ohio, Female College.

A. M. Honorary on Dr. R. T. Morris, New York City, A. M. in course on R. T. Caldwell, class of '89. E. L. Grubbs, '87, George Edwin Davis, '86. The degree of A. B. on all the graduating class except the following, who were made Bachelors of Science: G. H. Green, H. B. Irvine, W. W. Johnson, John H. Johns.

—Miss Lizzie Lee DaBun, daughter of W. J. DaBun, and Rev. George W. Mills, of Bradfordsville, were married this (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock, at the Baptist church at Perryville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. F. Taylor, pastor of the church. The attendants were W. S. Tewsey, Perryville, Miss Belle Kaufman, Nicholasville; Mr. John Brewer, Harrodsburg, Miss Mary Prather, Perryville; Mr. Geo. Bottoms, Miss Nannie Dugan, Perryville; Mr. Neill West, Perryville, Miss Angelina Young, Lexington.

MIDDLEBURY, CASEY COUNTY.

—J. W. Boyd & Co. are putting up a saw mill on the C. & G. railroad at a point formerly known as Staffordsville.

—The colored band of McKinney passed through town Saturday on their way to Yosemite to play for a darky entertainment there.

—E. B. Sweeney and J. W. Brown have submitted their claims as candidates for circuit clerk to the democratic committee for settlement.

—Mrs. Sally B. Daugherty, wife of William Daugherty, died at her home two miles north of here Saturday. A husband and two children, one of which is only about four weeks old, survive her.

—Prof. N. W. Hughes, one of Lincoln county's most popular teachers, has been employed to teach at Yosemite this year. Nathan is well up with the times as a teacher and we congratulate the trustees of the Yosemite school in securing so excellent an instructor.

—John Lawhorn and Thomas J. Foley had an altercation Friday on the pike below Yosemite, in which Foley came out second best. He had been having some talk, not very complimentary to Lawhorn, and on meeting Friday, the latter took him to task for it, with the above result.

—Janie-Wash Institute closed its first session Thursday, June 21. That it has been a success was clearly evinced by the examination, of which the patrons speak in the highest praise. Rev. J. N. Bowling, the superintendent, was highly pleased and is very hopeful and has no fears for the future of the school. He deserves success for his untiring efforts in establishing the school and placing it upon sure footing. Profs. J. N. Huff, J. A. Allen and R. H. Brown will doubtless be retained next session, as a better faculty could not be secured, nor one that would give better satisfaction.

BE GENTLE TO THY HUSBAND.

From Dear Kate's Scrap-Book.

Be gentle; there are hours when he is anxious care is tossed;

And shadows deep lie on his brow,

By business trials crossed.

Be gentle; 'tis for you he toils,

And thinks and strives to gain

Home comforts and home happiness,

Don't let him strive in vain.

Be gentle; though some hasty word

Should fall, as it is not meant;

A smile, a kind word will recall,

And many more prevent.

Be gentle; Oh, 'twill soothe much care,

And make each burden light;

A gentle tone will smooth the brow,

And draw an answer bright.

Be gentle; though it may seem hard

To check an angry word;

Yet try and it will surely bring

A full and rich reward.

No wife ever lived fuller up to the sentiments of the above lines than she who has recently been called to her reward in Heaven. A truer, more faithful, loving and model wife never blessed an unworthy man, and he who is now overwhelmed with grief feels that it was an unspeakably great privilege to have enjoyed her confidence and love, and that it was better to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Mr. J. S. Jones preached last Sunday morning and evening at the M. E. church.

—Mr. E. E. Nelson is clerking in the drug store of Hugueny & Jameson. Mr. M. K. Pennington, who had been with them for some months past, returned to his home last Sunday. Mr. C. W. Lester was at Pine Knot last week, settling up the estate of John Davis, dec'd. Miss Fannie Taylor is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wetmore, in Chicago.

—James Reed Curry—Harrington;

John Harkins Johns, Prestonsburg;

Patrick Joyce, Louisville.

Certificates—Francis Breckinridge

Douglas, Lexington; Calvin Morgan

Fackler, Danville; Edwin LaFayette

Van Winkle, Danville; John David

Zeigler, Frankfort.

Essays—James Reed Curry—Harrington;

John Harkins Johns, Prestonsburg;

Patrick Joyce, Louisville.

—Mr. E. E. Nelson is clerking in the drug store of Hugueny & Jameson. Mr.

M. K. Pennington, who had been with them for some months past, returned to his home last Sunday. Mr. C. W.

Lester was at Pine Knot last week, set ting up the estate of John Davis, dec'd.

Miss Fannie Taylor is visiting her sis ter, Mrs. Wetmore, in Chicago.

—Misses Bond and Arthur, of Lawrenceburg, are guests of Mrs. E. S. Moss.

J. A. Butler, who has been attending school at the A. & M. College, Lexington, is spending part of his vacation

here. Mr. George Ellison and Miss Sidney Stanfill spent last Sunday in London. Misses Andrews and Culver, who

W. P. WALTON.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE.

SIX PAGES.

NO NOMINATION YET.

Blaine's Friends Playing for Time,

And if They Can Not Down Harrison,

Will Bring Out a Dark Horse.

A 29-Minute Session Yesterday, and an Adjournment till 8 P. M.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 9.—The convention met shortly after 11 o'clock and at the request of the committee on Credentials, which was not ready to report, an adjournment was had till 8 o'clock to-night, nothing being done in the 29 minutes that the body was in session.

The committee says it will report to-night, but if it does not the convention seems determined to have contests decided on floor of convention hall in order to get test vote as to strength of rival candidates.

The Blaine men seem to fear their strength and are playing for time to fix some of the southern delegates, or convey Blaine's strength to a dark horse. The plumed knight's name is no longer magical and it seems that Harrison has got the call.

The committee on resolutions has practically completed its work. One of the most important planks yet to be considered is the one providing for the election of U. S. Senator by the people. One plank expresses sympathy for the oppressed Jews. The silver question is straddled.

The Blaine forces secured first blood by the selection of J. Sloat Fassett, of New York, for temporary chairman over Senator Culom, of Illinois, by a vote of 29 to 20, Kentucky voting solidly for the latter, who was run in the interest of Mr. Harrison. The selection was made by the National committee, and on the assembling of the convention at 12:30 Tuesday it was endorsed by acclamation. Fassett made a long speech and so did Thomas Bracken Reed, the ex-Czar, and at 1:54 the convention adjourned till 11 Wednesday morning.

Nearly all the contests were settled in favor of the anti-administration men, but Harrison's followers claim that they have enough votes to nominate their man without getting down to small disputes. It will require 452 votes to nominate and they say they have them, while the Blaine men are equally as confident. Gov. McKinley, a Harrison man, was chosen permanent chairman, but the work is usually gotten in by the temporary presiding officer. The convention was only in session two hours Wednesday and nothing of importance was done. It is the tactics of the Blaine men to delay balloting and till then they were successful. Foraker, another Blaine man, was made chairman of the committee on resolutions and the Kentucky delegation was placed as follows: Permanent organization, D. J. Burchett; rules and order of business, W. H. Milby; resolutions, Geo. Denny, Jr.; credentials, John Feland.

Col. Bradley is to second the nomination of Harrison and his friends predict that the Chicago paper will not be able to say aught against him this time. The colonel, while he never did deserve the strictures of that sheet, has learned a great deal in the last four years.

There is no chance for harmony, it seems, between the New York delegations, except in one particular—both have promised to support the nominee, no matter whom he may be. The Hill delegation decided by a vote of 60 to 1, to stand by Hill "until he is nominated, or as long as he will permit the use of his name before the convention." This won't be long, of course, and the delegates, like good boys, will raise their voices for Grover Cleveland.

The law firm of Helm & Bruce, Louisville, which has gorged the State for years, put in a claim for a $20,000 fee in a back tax suit in which $90,000 was recovered, in addition to $5,000 already paid them. Gov. Brown very properly thought it too much and arbitrators have been agreed on to settle it. As lawyers stand together in such matters, there is not much hope for the State, which is swindled and gorged by everybody who can get a chance.

The Alabama democratic convention renominated Gov. Jones.

THE Louisville Times is moved to say what everybody else is thinking, that should Blaine be nominated the selection of Cleveland by the democrats is assured beyond doubt; should the president finally defeat his opponents the nomination of Cleveland is still probable because the Minneapolis developments will have largely impaired the strength of those considerations which up to recently should and doubtless would have militated against Cleveland's nomination. A man, interested singly in the success of his party, who, a few days ago, might have thought the nomination of Cleveland inexpedient and hopeless, might very well now be brought to regard it as the best thing to be done.

THE Maryland democrats, in convention assembled, indorsed Cleveland, but refused to recommend his nomination. The Maine convention recommended his nomination; the Mississippian did not instruct and the Texans resolved that the ex-president should be renominated and silver and other issues ignored.

THE Cumberland Valley Republican, Harlan's new paper, is a very creditable sheet. It is edited by John B. Hurst and is for D. G. Colson all over for Congress.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The House adopted the section of the election bill, which fixes 4 o'clock as the hour for closing the polls.

On a reconsideration of the geological survey bill, designed to continue it, the Senate voted 20 to 10 in favor of continuance. The salary of the State railroad commissioners, proposed by the revisory commission at $3,000 a year, was reduced by the Senate to $2,000, the present salary of the commissioners, as it should have been.

It is to be hoped that the petition presented by Hon. John S. May, from citizens of Pulaski, Wayne and Whitley counties, asking for the establishment of a new county to be known as Coal county, and to be composed of portions of Pulaski, Wayne and Whitley, will be set down on with a dull thud. There are too many pauper counties now.

NEWSY NOTES.

Ludlow has voted to spend $25,000 for water works.

The bill to admit Arizona and New Mexico as States passed the House.

A cyclone demolished 42 houses at Cleburne, Texas, and fatally injured two persons.

The governor vetoed the House bill allowing the counties to change their county seats.

At Creede, Col., Bob Ford, the slayer of Jesse James, was shot dead by Deputy Sheriff Kelly.

Sixty-five lives were lost by the burning and sinking of the steamer Alton on the Auster river, in Russia.

Henry Massie suicided in jail at Pineville. He was awaiting trial for the murder of his sweetheart, Etta Dugan.

Joseph Oldam, a merchant of Madison county, became violently insane while going to consult a doctor. It is thought he will die.

The New Oriental Bank of London, with a capital of $10,000,000, suspended payment Wednesday. Assets and liabilities are about $45,000,000 each.

The exact loss of life in the Oil Creek valley will never be known, but it is several hundred. Nearly 1,500 people are homeless in Oil City and Titusville.

An official report of the recent disaster in the Birkenberg mine in Austria places the number of lives lost at 332. The bodies of 304 men have been recovered.

Oregon has gone republican, as usual, by a heavy majority. The republicans elect the State officers, the two Congressmen and a majority of both branches of the Legislature.

Austin Porter, who murdered his wife near Willard, May 26, was taken from the jail at Grayson by a mob and hanged from a railroad bridge near Willard Monday. His last request was to be buried beside the woman he had murdered.

At Hendrix during a fight at a republican primary convention, Joseph Higgins shot and killed Robt. Patrick, Ex-County Assessor Daniel B. Greene lost an ear and Elijah Dungan was knocked down with a stone and probably fatally injured.

The gentlemen of the World's Fair State board have divided their work as follows: W. H. Dulaney, manufacturer; Young E. Allison, fine arts and liberal arts; Dr. John D. Clardy, agriculture and horticulture; James D. Black, minerals; John W. Yerkes, live stock.

The House passed a bill which is designed to restrain the gambling in options or futures in which the market prices of ordinary products are involved. It is on a high license order, and the taxation of products so dealt in is so heavy as to practically abolish speculation of this sort.

The mob that took W. A. James, the scoundrel who deserted his dying wife at Lebanon, did not hang him as stated, but gave him the worst flogging on record, 20 men laying it on with buggy whips, till his back was like a piece of raw beef and blood ran from his mouth.

The Bible College at Lexington graduated 22 young preachers this week.

NOTICE.—We will shut down on

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

Judge Robert Boyd is at Williamsburg holding the regular term of the Whitley circuit court.

A hop was given at the Riley House Tuesday night, which is reported to have been quite a happy affair.

Prof. James A. Yates opened a normal school at the Academy, this week, with about 30 teachers in attendance.

W. R. Hackney and J. M. Robinson have returned from Lexington, where they have been attending the State College during the past year.

A. R. Dyche is attending the Republican National Convention. Miss Lucy White, of Manchester, is visiting Miss May Boreing. Misses Emma Garfield, Eva White and Daisy Potter, who have been with friends at Pittsburg, left for Barbourville Wednesday afternoon.

It is not without a degree of satisfaction that we note the disruption in the convention assembled at Minneapolis, not that we enjoy strife, but because we are willing for the enemy to "play fool" for a season, while we get ourselves in shape to enter the campaign with such union of strength that Harrison, Blaine, or any other who may be chosen can be wiped from the face of the earth. With Cleveland against Blaine surely the democratic heart would become filled with hope—Cleveland did it once—he can do it again.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

Mrs. Burnside's musical entertainment will take place on the night of the 24th.

The house of Widow Griffin, near Wildie, was destroyed by fire a few nights since.

Nathan Whiteaker, who lived on Rockcastle river, dropped dead from heart disease a few days since.

Mrs. Ella Latford caught a 20 inch bass, weighing four pounds, near Langford Station, in Round Stone, Wednesday.

From a Tennessee paper I learn that Jack MacCall, formerly of this county, now of Hurricane, Tenn., is rejoicing over the advent of twins at his house. Grover and Peter are their names.

A disastrous hail storm occurred 9 miles southwest of this place Monday. Corn, oats, wheat, etc., in many places was literally beaten from the ground.

Mr. Reuben Brown died of heart disease Tuesday. He had been plowing and when a shower came up he ran to a spring-house on the farm. He was found shortly afterwards dead.

A 13-months-old child of Jas. Moore was drowned Wednesday evening in a pool near the house. The little fellow crawled out from the door unnoticed and when found a few minutes afterwards, he was in the water, dead.

Mr. John Buchanan, of Crab Orchard, was here Tuesday. Mr. D. C. Poynter is in Louisville and Mr. C. W. Adams is holding things down at the store. Dr. John Williams has returned from Danville. Misses Maggie Spradlin and Daisy Dye are here from Fountain Head, Tenn. Miss G. Vivian Weber has arrived from Hamilton College.

Rev. J. C. Carmichael's horse ran away with him as he was coming down the hill just south of town, Wednesday. Both bridle reins broke and the horse dashed down the hill at a high speed. When nearing the school the rider was thrown over the horse's head, the animal jumping over the prostrate form, one foot striking him in the back. Injuries not serious.

Aunt Pop Proctor, who had a stroke of paralysis a few days since, is resting some easier. Mrs. M. C. Miller and children, of Austin, Texas, are with relatives here. Col. Richard Thomas was in from Cincinnati the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McClure and daughter, Bessie, attended the closing exercises of the Blind Asylum, Louisville. Misses Lena McClure and Mary Ferguson, students of the institution, returned with them. Mrs. A. Pennington is on a two weeks' visit in Jackson county. Ashley Owen, late of Missouri, now of Livingston, was here Monday, looking as well as he did 40 years ago.

Another bloody murder occurred in the eastern part of this county this week. Bill Fair shot and killed Jesse Helton. Fair, who was drinking, went to Helton's house carrying with him an old banjo. Helton was not at home, but Fair, a few minutes afterwards, found Fair playing the banjo and the children dancing. Helton abhorred a banjo and ordered Fair to desist, which he refused to do. Helton then ordered him to leave the house and upon his refusal to do so Helton took him by the shoulder and pushed him through the door. Fair drew a revolver and sent a ball through Helton's bowels, which caused his death the next day. The dead man was married and had always been a peaceable man. I have been unable to learn the reputation of the slayer. Fair was arrested at Livingston Sunday night while attempting to board a train, was jailed here and preliminary trial held Wednesday and bond placed at $2,000, which the prisoner was unable to give.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

Carroll Reid bought of W. F. Dodd a harness mare for $300.

A. T. Nunnelley bought 20 hogs averaging 200 pounds at 4¢.

J. G. Lynn says he sold his lambs to Ben Robinson instead of D. N. Prew.

NOTICE.—We will shut down on

WAT WE CAN DU 4 U.

We can save u money n anthing in

Our Clothing, Shu and Dri Guds Line,

4 this week we ofer

Speshal Bargins.

Bargin No. 1: Ol Kaliko at 5 cents a yad.

Bargin No. 2: Ol 12 1-2c Ginghams at 10 cents a yad.

Bargin No. 3: Ol Dress Guds at Bargain Prises.

Ladis, we hav on han a lot of Remnents, wch we wil sel w at half pris this week onle.

25 rols of Mating jus reseved. Luk at 'em. Gents, don't fale to luk at our line of

FANCE WITE VESTS AT $1.50.

20 Men's Ol Wul Lite Color Sutes at $5: Od Sumer Cotes and Vests from 50c up.

Od Pance at at cost. Another lot Helmets just opened, at 50, 60 and 75c.

THE LOUISVILLE STORE.

THE WILLARD.

(Late Alexander's Hotel.)

THOROUGHLY: RENOVATED: AND: IMPROVED.

Rates $2.50 Per Day.

Cor. Jefferson, Center and Green Streets, opposite the Court-House,

Louisville, Ky.

A. W. Jones, J. J. Sullivan,

W. R. LOGAN,

Manager.

The Bottom Knocked Out

Fifty pairs Ladies' Custom Made

Shoes

Broken sizes, all of the best makes, reduced from $3.50 per pair to $1.75.

Sateens reduced from 15 3/4c per yard to 10c. Dress Chambray reduced from 15c yard to 10c. 36-inch Cotton Serge from 16 3/4c yard to 10c.

These goods must go in the next 30 days, so call at once and secure your share of the bargains.

W. E. PERKINS, Crab Orchard.

A. R. PENNY,

DRUGGIST AND JEWELER,

During the year 1892 I shall keep constantly on stock of Drugs and Paints, Oils, & Stationery.

.....My stock of ....

WATCHES, CLOCKS &amp; JEWELRY

Is larger and better selected than ever and I assure my customers of prompt service, low charges and courteous treatment; Mr. THOMAS DALTON in charge.

A. R. PENNY.

SPRING CLOTHING!

OUR STOCK IS COMPLETE

And we can show as nice an assortment as the people have

Ever Seen in Stanford.

All Styles and Colors of

Cassimeres, Worsteds and Home-Spuns.

Please Examine and Price Them.

M'ROBERTS & HIGGINS.

Hon. W. V. LUCAS, Ex-State Auditor of Iowa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and have no hesitancy in saying it is an excellent remedy. I believe all that is claimed for it. Persons afflicted with a cough or cold will find it good. There is a difference in the various brands of this remedy is freely given. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.

M. C. SAUFLEY,

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

SANFORD, KY., JUNE 10, 1892

W. P. WALTON.

BOBBITT IN THE MOUNTAINS.

(To the Editor Interior Journal)
WILLIAMSBURG, June 6.—I am back at this propitious mountain city again. Circuit court convened here yesterday for a four weeks' session, with a full docket and a crowded house of eager spectators. I am stopping with the genial gentleman, the efficient sheriff, the brave knight and clever landlord, Matt Moore, who keeps the Williamsburg and feeds his guest like a Nabob in India.

I left Crab Orchard Sunday and enjoyed the beautiful mountain scenery very much. The rugged dels, the deep, dark mountain gorges, the lofty mountains, the storm-beaten cliffs, towering high overhead, defying time and laughing to scorn the raging tempests, for more than 60 centuries, whose snows and hails, winds and rains, have beaten upon them in vain! Eight different times the train hid itself in the dark bosom of the earth, but as often the vapory fingers of steam brought it forth again into the glorious sunlight and it went waving on with its burden, while the Genius of Progress, with brow festooned with wild mountain flowers, rode triumphantly upon the smoke stack. A lofty, yet humble and sooty throne for a queen regent! When London was reached a creature so beautiful, so lovely, so far superior in all perfection to any I had ever seen before, caused me to remark to those sitting near: "Old Peter has been rather careless this beautiful Sunday evening and has left the golden gate a little ajar."

"Why so?" asked several. "Because," I replied, "I see an angel has slipped out and come down on a visit to London." I told them that if she were a created being of earthly essence that when nature formed the design of creating her she called together all that was beautiful, graceful and lovely in the animated world—the dark-eyed gazelle, whose eyes she had, the graceful antelope, the liberty loving chamois of the Alps, the sweet singing nightingale, the beautiful humming bird—and selecting the choicest parts of each, she formed this heavenly creation and then standing back and looking admiringly at her magical work, exclaimed, "Perfect!" For never did Grecian chisel trace

"A nymph, a naiad or a grace
Of finer form or lovelier face."

Send a copy of the next issue of you unequalled semi-hebdomadal paper to Miss Sidney Stanfill, Williamsburg, and if not called for there, and if there should be any postal facilities on the Celestial shore, the post-master will forward it on and it will probably find its appropriate destination and be delivered to the proper recipient.

Now I shall talk about something less lovely and less beautiful—Judge Boyd and his court. His honor's instructions to the grand jury were sublimely grand. He fined the gay and jovial jailer $5 for appearing in the presence of the court intoxicated and recognized him in a bond of $200 to appear before the grand jury to tell where he got his whisky. I looked every minute for him to tell the jailer to go and put himself in jail, lock the door and send the court the key. This is the judge who recently removed the jailer from his office in the county of Laurel for suffering prisoners to run at large over town, and although that jailer was a republican, he now sights to find the jailer's keys no more. Judge Boyd says the place for a man sent to jail is within the walls, and the judge is exactly right. The few weeks' confinement in jail before trial is often the only punishment the bloodiest of murders ever get. I have heard of a jailer in a county adjoining Lincoln that allowed even a guilty parricide to visit the young ladies in the town and go on a visit as far as Harrodsburg. Blackstone says that it is an escape to allow a prisoner more liberty than the law allows—that is to let him run at large, and it matters not that the prisoner does not take advantage of the jailer's criminal negligence, the opportunity to escape and the evil resulting to the boys of the country seeing a blood-stained murderer going at large, is the same. So well did our English ancestors understand this that they destroyed everything (even inanimate) that had caused the death of a man, as a wagon wheel that had run over him, a knife with which he had been killed, that the people might not become familiar with murder. If Judge Boyd were on the bench in the 8th judicial district how long would that clever and ultra-human jailer carry the keys of the jail of the county to which I refer and which you so well know which I mean. Perhaps the Reporter and Republican will publish this letter, or an extract therefrom. I mean no ill-will towards that jailer; I only mean to censure friends as well as foes, when they deserve it.

When Judge Boyd was instructing the grand jury on the 16 year-old seduction law he was most severe and eloquent. He said those young men who went about to soil and to stain the fair name of the young and unsuspecting were the greatest criminals in the land and deserved the felon's cell in the State penitentiary. I could see the poisonous ivy growing upon the ruined castle of virtue where innocence once dwelt. He seemed to think that the worst sinner in or out of hell was he who employed the graces of his person and the treasures of his mind to dazzle the senses and influence the passions of poor, weak and erring woman that he might triumph over her virtue and exult over the ruin he had wrought. That even a kiss upon the coral lips of beauty was nothing but a torch applied to the magazine of the passions; that no one could inhale the fragrance of the rose from afar that did not long to taste the sweetness of its dewy leaves.

FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT.

Which Side.
A youngster who, having been presented by his uncle with a new suit of clothes, became for the first time in his life interested in his personal appearance, and insisted upon having a collar put on and having his hair combed. Taking the comb to the uncle that gave him the clothes he requested him to comb his hair.

"Well," said the uncle, "which side shall I part it on?"

The youngster's ideas on the subject of hairdressing were quite vague, but he was equal to the emergency.

"Well, on the outside, I guess," said he.—Boston Transcript.

A Chip of the Old Block.

Bingo—What's the matter with your clothes, Bobby?

Bobby (meekly)—I fell down on my way from school.

Bingo—Who licked?—New York Sun.

How He Rode.
The character of the old Illinois courts, in which Abraham Lincoln practiced, was very primitive. In one case a livery stable horse had died soon after being returned, and the person who had hired it was sued for damages. The question turned largely upon the reputation of the defendant as a hard rider. A witness was called—a long, lank westerner.

"How does Mr. So-and-so usually ride?" asked the lawyer.
Without a gleam of intelligence, the witness replied:

"Astraddle, sir."

"No, no," said the lawyer; "I mean, does he usually walk or trot or gallop?"

"Waal," said the witness, apparently searching in the depths of his memory for facts, "when he rides a walkin' horse he walks, when he rides a trotin' horse he trots, and when he rides a gallopin' horse he gallops, when—"

The lawyer was angry. "I want to know what gait the defendant usually takes—fast or slow?"

"Waal," said the witness, "when his company rides fast he rides fast, and when his company rides slow he rides slow."

"I want to know, sir," the lawyer said, very much exasperated and very stern now, "how Mr. So-and-so rides when he is alone?"

"Waal," said the witness, more slowly and meditatively than ever, "when he was alone I wa'n't along and I don't know."

The laugh at the questioner ended the cross examination.—Century.

Getting His Eyes Opened.

Jim Doolie late married a Fifth Avenue society lady, and some rumors of an impending divorce are already afloat. He complains that his wife has a very bad temper and flirts with Tom, Dick and Harry.

"When did you first get acquainted with your wife?" asked a friend.

"I have known her for a good while, but I didn't get really acquainted with her until after we were married," replied Jim with a sigh.—Texas Siftings.

A Servant's Recommendation.
A Pennsylvania woman who quite prided herself upon never "taking impudence" from a servant, was greatly astonished lately by a domestic who was leaving her in "high dudgeon."

"There is one thing I will say of ye," said the irate Bridget; "that is, I can ricomed ye as bein the best liddly I ever worked for in: all me life for takin impudence and not a-gittin mad at it!"—Wide Awake.

Pointers.

Bulfinch—How is it, Mr. Johnsing, that you dress up so fine every other way and yet always wear a pair of trousers that bag so terribly at the knee?

Mr. Johnsing—Well, yoh see, Massa Bulfinch, that my feet's done set on so nigh in the middle that I cou'n tell which way I was agwine, if it wan't for dose bags at the knee.—Boston Courier.

Two Papas.

Wee Hostess—Mamma, shall I invite Lucy Littin to my party?

Mamma—Certainly. She is the minister's daughter.

Do minister's daughters get invited everywhere?

"Always."
They has lots of fun, I guess. I wish my papa was a minister—of a deist of a miser.

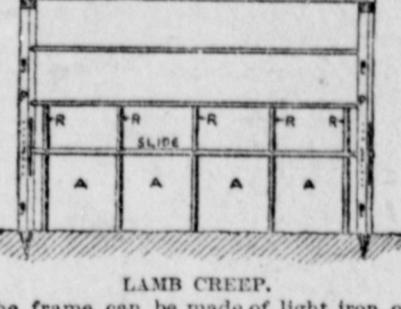

Old man Berry Starnes, who lived in Rye Cove, Scott county, Va., was assassinated by three masked men and his house robbed of $450.

LAMB CREEP OR HURDLE.

A Contrivance in High Favor with Skillful Flockmasters.

The creep is a contrivance by which the lambs are allowed to run forward and crop the choicest herbage before the older sheep soil it. Some creeps are adjustable to the size of the lamb, others are fixtures, and the upright bars through which they pass are round and smooth and revolve upon an axis of iron or an iron spike. The revolving rollers leave the wool undisturbed. Lambs to do well must have change, freedom and a private lunchroom; all this can be accomplished through the use of the creep. The revolvers of the plan I send you are stationary. The distance between the revolvers must be made to suit the breed. For instance, for Merinos, six inches between the uprights will be sufficient, and from eight to ten inches wide will meet the demands of all other breeds. When sufficiently large to fill the different spaces the youngsters will be fit to wean; meanwhile the ewes cannot force them selves through the creep.

The frame can be made of light iron or 2 by 3 scathing. The two posts (P) each have a hook top and bottom for hanging the wire netting on, making it convenient for moving. The netting should be thirty inches high. The posts are hooped with iron at the top and cased at the bottom. The creeps (A) are twenty-four inches high and are shown in the engraving to be of disproportionate width between the rollers, which should be set from six to eight or ten inches apart according to the size of the lambs. The iron spikes or iron pins answer the purpose of uprights set so as to allow of revolution. Or these uprights may be made stationary. The slide through which the rollers or uprights pass is adjustable, so that it can be set to the height of the lambs and fixed there by iron pins. The ends of the slide should be thin plate iron which can be easily moved up and down in the slots in the posts.

When you want to bring out a lot of early ram or wether lambs for the fall or Christmas show no time should be lost. An inclosure of hurdles with troughs and feed inside and creep in the center of the fold should at once be erected in the field, so that the lambs may go through at will to feed on crushed cake, peas or oats, and when satisfied return outside and steal a drink of their mother's milk, or the system I work on myself is, I think, still preferable—feeding the lambs three times a day, giving them only what they will consume for the time being.

Lambs are very dainty in their eating; the least offensive smell seems at once to disgust them. In the first place they should have feed troughs specially for themselves. These should be about six feet long, the bottom six inches wide and the sides not more than two inches in height; they should be raised about four inches from the ground and a round pole should run along the top of the trough from one end to the other to prevent the lambs from jumping from one side of the feed box to the other, which they continually keep doing, dropping dirt from their feet in the trough and wasting much feed. The pole must be sufficiently high from the trough so as not to interfere with the lamb reaching the feed.

I prefer a flat bottomed feed box to a V-shaped one. Lambs like their feed in troughs so formed, I presume, because they do not blow on the food when spread on a flat surface nearly so much as when placed deep in a narrow space. Feed little at a time is the great secret. Let the shepherd stand by while the lambs are eating and as they clean their dish add a handful more. By such handling it is astonishing the quantity of grub you can coax them to stuff into their little stomachs, and it is marvelous how lambs develop under such treatment.

The shepherd should when the lambs are eating take particular notice of the gross feeders—the big constitutioned sorts—for these are the ones he has to depend on for winning honors in the show arena. He should also stamp on his memory the ewes that have produced the best lambs, so that he may bestow on them every care to reproduce to advantage.

I take care that lambs under my charge wake up every morning to a liberal feed of cake and oats, and at night they receive the same before resting their heads on the pillow. What contented children a hearty supper makes them! Not a whisper is heard till breakfast hour the following day. In the morning I no sooner enter the feeding fold than there is a general rush as to which of the lambs will pass first through the creep. What more beautiful sight can there be than a lot of fine thrifty lambs crowding around the feed boxes crunching cake and corn. What music there is in that crunch!—William Watson in Breeder's Gazette.

The Standard of Horse Flesh.

Recent developments in the horse market show several facts. One is that the standard of horse flesh of all kinds has advanced so rapidly in this country that what would have been a good horse before the war would be a scarecrow now. Second, the live farmer and breeder must keep pace with this advancing standard or he will be bankrupted. High grade horses of all kinds sell readily at a good price, but inferior animals bring almost nothing. The taste is so critical that few horses come up to present requirements of the market.

One pound of three strand wool twine will tie the fleeces of thirty sheep. One pound of five strand wool twine will tie up the fleeces of twenty sheep.

Miles' Nerve and Livers Pill.

Acton a new principle—regulating the liver and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pill specially cures biliousness, tetter, liver, piles, constipation, unequal fat, men, women, children. Smallest, surest. Fifty doses 25 cents. Sample at A. R. Penny's.

$500 REWARD.

We will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Costiveness we can not cure. Dr. Miles' Pill specially cures biliousness, tetter, liver, piles, constipation, unequal fat, men, women, children. Smallest, surest. Fifty doses 25 cents. Sample at A. R. Penny's.

Fontaine Fox Bobbitt.

Which Side.

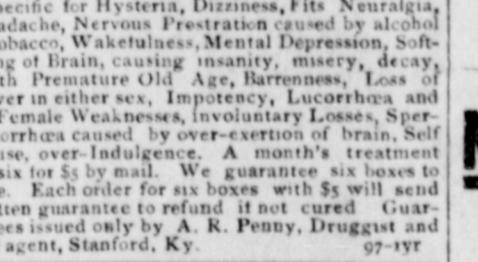

A youngster who, having been presented by his uncle with a new suit of clothes, became for the first time in his life interested in his personal appearance, and insisted upon having a collar put on and having his hair combed. Taking the comb to the uncle that gave him the clothes he requested him to comb his hair.

"Well," said the uncle, "which side shall I part it on?"

The youngster's ideas on the subject of hairdressing were quite vague, but he was equal to the emergency.

"Well, on the outside, I guess," said he.—Boston Transcript.

A Chip of the Old Block.

Bingo—What's the matter with your clothes, Bobby?

Bobby (meekly)—I fell down on my way from school.

Bingo—Who licked?—New York Sun.

How He Rode.

The character of the old Illinois courts, in which Abraham Lincoln practiced, was very primitive. In one case a livery stable horse had died soon after being returned, and the person who had hired it was sued for damages. The question turned largely upon the reputation of the defendant as a hard rider. A witness was called—a long, lank westerner.

"How does Mr. So-and-so usually ride?" asked the lawyer.

Without a gleam of intelligence, the witness replied:

"Astraddle, sir."

"No, no," said the lawyer; "I mean, does he usually walk or trot or gallop?"

"Waal," said the witness, apparently searching in the depths of his memory for facts, "when he rides a walkin' horse he walks, when he rides a trotin' horse he trots, and when he rides a gallopin' horse he gallops, when—"

The lawyer was angry. "I want to know what gait the defendant usually takes—fast or slow?"

"Waal," said the witness, "when his company rides fast he rides fast, and when his company rides slow he rides slow."

"I want to know, sir," the lawyer said, very much exasperated and very stern now, "how Mr. So-and-so rides when he is alone?"

"Waal," said the witness, more slowly and meditatively than ever, "when he was alone I wa'n't along and I don't know."

The laugh at the questioner ended the cross examination.—Century.

Getting His Eyes Opened.

Jim Doolie late married a Fifth Avenue society lady, and some rumors of an impending divorce are already afloat. He complains that his wife has a very bad temper and flirts with Tom, Dick and Harry.

"When did you first get acquainted with your wife?" asked a friend.

"I have known her for a good while, but I didn't get really acquainted with her until after we were married," replied Jim with a sigh.—Texas Siftings.

A Servant's Recommendation.

A Pennsylvania woman who quite prided herself upon never "taking impudence" from a servant, was greatly astonished lately by a domestic who was leaving her in "high dudgeon."

"There is one thing I will say of ye," said the irate Bridget; "that is, I can ricomed ye as bein the best liddly I ever worked for in: all me life for takin impudence and not a-gittin mad at it!"—Wide Awake.

Pointers.

Bulfinch—How is it, Mr. Johnsing, that you dress up so fine every other way and yet always wear a pair of trousers that bag so terribly at the knee?

Mr. Johnsing—Well, yoh see, Massa Bulfinch, that my feet's done set on so nigh in the middle that I cou'n tell which way I was agwine, if it wan't for dose bags at the knee.—Boston Courier.

Two Papas.

Wee Hostess—Mamma, shall I invite Lucy Littin to my party?

Mamma—Certainly. She is the minister's daughter.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., JUNE 10, 1892

E. C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

WALL PAPER and paints at W. B. McRoberts'.

ENGRAVING beautifully and artistically done at A. R. Penny's.

Buy your books and school supplies of all kinds from A. R. Penny.

HAVE your watch, clock and jewelry repaired at A. R. Penny's. All work warranted.

REMEMBER that all silverware, watches, rings, &amp;c., bought at A. R. Penny's will be engraved free of charge.

PERSONAL POINTS.

MISS NORA MORELAND is visiting in Danville.

MR. JOE HARDIN returned to Corbin yesterday.

MISS NELLIE ODNDORF is clerking for Mr. Isaac Hamilton.

MR. F. L. CLIFFORD is one of the most accomodating agents we ever saw.

MISS LIZZIE DUNN, of Danville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. Smith Baughman.

MISSES PATTIE TRUBBLE and Sudie Pickett attended the impromptu hop Tuesday night.

JESSE D. WEAREN is attending the commencement exercises at Central University this week.

MRS. MOLLIE INGRAM and children, of Erin, Tenn., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hamilton.

MRS. EMILY JONES, Mrs. Jos. Coffey, Ed H. Jones and Master Joe Lynn Coffey went to Richmond Tuesday.

MRS. WILL BERKELD and little Miss Alma, of Louisville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wherritt, in Lancaster.

MRS. S. C. WOOLDRIDGE and pretty daughter, Miss Mary, of Denver, passed through to Lancaster yesterday to visit their mother.

COL. JOHN BUCHANAN and wife, of Crab Orchard, passed down to Louisville, yesterday to visit their daughter, Mrs. John A. Haldeman.

MR. JOHN PEARL, of London, went to Louisville, this week and we are indebted to C. R. Brock, Esq., for a letter from that place sent or short notice.

MR. REYMOND FLAG and wife, Messrs. H. F. Withorne, Boyle Nichols and Vernon Richardson, of Danville, came up to see the game of base ball Tuesday.

MISS MADIE WHITE, of Middleway, W. Va., an alumna of Stanford Female College, spent Tuesday night with Misses Annie and Mary Alcorn, en route to visit Miss Jennie Knott, at Lebanon.

MISSES GLEN BIBB and Sadie Lillard, who have been attending Stonewall Institute at Abingdon, Va., arrived Tuesday night. Miss Bibb is at Mr. Sam M. Owens' and Miss Lillard with Mrs. J. T. Craig.

MR. AND MRS. S. M. WILHITE and little son, Douglas, of Louisville, arrived yesterday to be present at the hop this evening. They are accompanied by Miss Lizzie Snyder, a beautiful Louisville belle.

MR. D. E. PROCTOR, of Rockcastle, who has recently graduated in the Louisville Medical College, is here preparing to locate either at this place or Rowland. He is accompanied by Dr. E. Brown, of Mt. Vernon.

WHEN William Jennings Price finished his valedictory at Centre College, Wednesday, Gov. J. Proctor Knott sent him a card with this inscription: "The best valedictory I ever heard," a splendid compliment from a competent source.

One of the sweet girl graduates of Stanford Female College last week, Miss Ella B. Wright, has already been given a big paying school in the Carpenter's Creek district, between Hustonville and Liberty, in which there are 90-odd scholars—a high compliment worthily bestowed.

CITY AND VICINITY.

FRUIT jars at McKinney Bros.

FRUIT JARS at J. B. Foster's.

FOR PLANTS, see O. J. Newland.

SODA WATER at W. B. McRoberts'.

FRUIT JARS at Farris &amp; Hardin's.

BINDER Twine and machine oil at J. B. Foster's.

New beans, tomatoes and potatoes at P. Hampton's.

We now have a stock of woven wire and slat fence made of oak pickets. Sine &amp; Menefee.

NEW CHINA, Glass and Queenswars just received at A. A. Warren's "Model Grocery."

MACE FERRELL was tried at Rowland Wednesday and held in $100 to circuit court for maliciously shooting at Tommy Warren.

ELOPEMENT.—Fee Edwards, a young brakeman, and Miss Mollie Adams, daughter of Wilson Adams, eloped to Jellico and were spliced.

THE Q. &amp; C. in connection with the Erie will run a cheap excursion to Niagara Falls next Sunday. Tickets good on all trains arriving in Cincinnati on the morning of the 12th. Tickets good to return till the 18th.

PHOTON for sale on reasonable terms. Inquire of Miss Annie Wray.

BOARDERS WANTED.—Good fare, pleasant rooms at the McRoberts house. Mrs. Rannie Burks.

ALL kinds of rough lumber for sale at the New Lumber Yard near the depot. J. T. Blankenship.

FRUIT JARS, jelly glasses, tops, gums, sealing wax and preserving kettles at Farris &amp; Hardin's.

A good, second hand, 12-horse-power portable engine for sale at a bargain. See Geo. D. Wearen.

MY fine soda water apparatus is now in operation. Call and get a glass of the best you ever tasted. A. R. Penny.

COUNTY COURT, next Monday, bring your watch, clock and jewelry repairs to Danks, the Jeweler, at McRoberts' drug store.

IT is a mistake about Prof. M. D. Hughes running a candidate for trustee in his interest at Rowland. It was talk ed of, but given up at his request.

THE Interior Journals and Danvilles cross bats again at the home of the latter to day, at 3 p. m., when it is hoped our namesakes will redeem themselves.

THE Danvilles came up here Tuesday and basted the Interior Journals again 8 to 1. We fear our boys are losing cast, and as the subject is a painful one we will drop it for the present.

I HAVE employed R. M. Smith, a splendid shoemaker from Lexington, Va., and am prepared to do all work given me. Repairing ladies' flexible bottoms a specialty. Ladies' fine shoes also made. T. J. Hatcher.

A TRESTLE on the road running from Yosemite to Kingsville gave away while a train was passing over it; yesterday, and two men were caught under the wreck. It is not yet known how badly they are hurt. Two cars were literally demolished.

MRS. BROWN, a young widow, was cowhided at Somerset by Mrs. Wm. Vick, who claimed that the widow had led her liege lord astray. The assault was made as the congregation at the Barnes meeting was dispersing and created a great sensation.

EVERYTHING is in readiness for a grand hop to-night at Walton's Opera House. The Merry Bachelors make a special request that spectators occupy the gallery, which will be neat and clean, as the dancers will no doubt fill all the space on the floor.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY recently announced his candidacy by card, and today his name appears in the formal announcement column. He has met with great encouragement in his race and his friends think he is sure to win. The peer of any candidates in any particular, he will, if chosen the party's standard-bearer, carry it triumphantly to victory and make a judge of whom not only the district, but the State, will be proud.

AN ELOPEMENT FRUSTRATED.—Wednesday when young Mr. W. L. Dudderar went to Mr. P. E. Parrish's to steal away his pretty daughter, Miss Mary, the old gentleman met him with a shot gun and the would be Benedict took to his heels. Some enemy had apprised Mr. Parrish of his coming and the romance was spoiled. Dudderar, who may be called a kid, had gotten his tickets to Jellico, but the best laid plans of mice and men gang aft agley.

THE closing exercises of Christian College, Hustonville, was largely attended and the programme, which was an entertainment one, was carried out without a blunder. The graduates, Misses Ethyl Wright and Rebeccah Cook, acquitted themselves with great honor and the musical numbers were all very fine. Those who attended from here were Mr. J. H. Yeager and Miss Pet Broadus, Dr. J. A. Amon and Miss Lena Broadus, Dr. A. S. Price and Miss Nettie Wray and Prof. B. F. Blakeman and Miss Sue Baughman.

It will be quite a surprise to his friends when they learn that Robert White, formerly of this place, has been a Benedict since April last. He was married in Middlesboro, but is now residing at Cleveland, Ohio, with his wife's parents.

For a little romance the young couple were clandestinely married and so secretly have they kept it that even Mr. White's mother was in ignorance of it until a few days ago. He has never told his wife's maiden name and Mr. and Mrs. Renben Williams only know their new daughter-in-law by her first name—Ella.

ONLY A BREACH OF THE PEACE.—When the case of L. M. Lasley for assaulting Prof. J. M. Hubbard, president of Stanford Female College, was called Wednesday, Messrs. R. C. Warren, W. H. Miller and J. B. Paxton appeared for the prosecution and Messrs. Robert Hardin and John Sam Owsley, Jr., for the defense. Nearly two hours were spent in an effort of the defense to have the warrant for breach of the peace tried and as Judge Carson finally decided the matter, he might have saved much time by granting the motion. The prosecution insisted on an examination under the other warrant for assault and battery and on that the judge decided the investigation should proceed, but Mr. Harding is as tenacious and as pugnacious as a bull-dog and continued to argue against the decision for an hour after it was made. Finding he could not change the ruling he said he would refuse to plead to the assault and battery warrants, but thought better of it when Mr. Paxton suggested that the court could, in all probability, force him to do so, or enter a plea anyway. At the request of the defense an adjournment was had till 1 o'clock, at which hour the case was resumed. Great interest was taken in the trial and the court room was pretty well filled, a number of ladies adding their presence.

Prof. Hubbard was the first witness called. He testified that on the evening of June 3d, while on his way to the post-office, he met Mr. Lasley to whom he said "Good evening, Mr. Lasley."

He turned and retorted, "I do not want you to speak to me sir." "What did you say?" he asked, when Lasley repeated.

"All I have done in this business has been my duty and I intend to stand by it and you needn't look at me," said H.

At this Lasley struck him in the face, knocking him to his knees, and catching him around the neck dealt numerous other blows in his face. Dr. Peyton dressed the wounds, some of which were to the bone and he was laid up for two or three days. He did not strike at Lasley. Then followed a long cross examination with reference to the refusal to award the diploma, which seemed to have been totally irrelevant. A number of witnesses were introduced who corroborated the professor, with the addition that Lasley had also said, "Go on, I want no trouble."

J. H. Chappell said he and Lasley were sitting together and that Lasley had said that he had it in for Hubbard and that when they saw him coming one or the other remarked, "Here he comes now" and Lasley started in that direction. Witnesses were introduced to prove threats and to show that the assault was with malice aforethought.

L. M. Lasley deposed that he passed Hubbard near McKinney Bros' store and that when Hubbard spoke to him he told him he didn't want him to speak to him any more. "I'll not be the loser by that," said Hubbard. "Go on," said I, "I want nothing to do with you." "I don't want you to look at me, you contemptible puppy," rejoined Hubbard, who stuck his finger into my face."

He then struck Hubbard, who returned the blows and they clinched, when he gave him several blows and they were pulled apart. He corroborated Chappell's statement and when asked if he did not go toward Hubbard expressly to assault him, he replied, "Not altogether."

Then followed a long statement about the refusal of Hubbard to give his daughter the diploma, unless she would read the essay Mrs. Hubbard had decided on. After hearing Miss Susie's statement of the case he told her that she should not read any and that the professor dare not carry out Mrs. Hubbard's threat that she would not be awarded her diploma and that the reasons would be publicly stated from the stage.

None of the witnesses said that the professor struck his hand in Lasley's mouth, but they agreed that he was gesturing with his hand. The expression "contemptible puppy" seems to have been used after the assault.

Miss Susie Lasley recounted the trouble about the essay and Mrs. Hubbard's refusal to allow her to read the one she had prepared with special care, without assigning a reason. She said also that Mrs. Hubbard had accused her of falsehood and resorting to a subterfuge in the matter.

Mrs. Hubbard detailed the trouble she had in getting Miss Susie to read the proper essay and said that she had resorted to a subterfuge in order to deceive her, by saying she would read the other while holding the objectionable one in her hand, thereby leading her to believe that she had agreed to be submissive. She did not use the word falsehood. She also admitted saying that some people in order to make themselves famous, would not hesitate to become infamous.

At the conclusion of the testimony, Mr. Owsley made a fiery speech in which he admitted that his client had been guilty of a crime, but said if he had been in his place he would have resorted to more severe means than he did.

Mr. Miller spoke very strongly in favor of holding Lasley for assault and battery, reviewed the testimony and said there was not one word of justification for the uncalled for, brutal and wanton assault, by a young athlete on a frail old man many years his senior. It was an outrage that should be punished to the extent of the law and he demanded that a jury be allowed to sit in judgment on the case.

Mr. Harding made an earnest effort to prove that his client had done no more than any father should have done and tried to show that the young lady had been most shamefully and outrageously treated. The shoving of Hubbard's finger in Lasley's face warranted him in striking him and he asked in fairness and justice that his client be discharged.

Mr. Paxton closed for the prosecution in a very forcible speech. He minced no words with reference to the assault, which he characterized as the most disgraceful one in the history of Stanford.

It was premeditated and carefully arranged to take the old gentleman at a disadvantage and if such brutal assaults were permitted to go free of punishment there need be no judicial investigations. He demanded that the accused be held for assault and battery, but it was like talking to a saw horse, the judge had made up his mind that the case was nothing more than a breach of the peace and held Lasley for trial on that charge to the 18th. His decision is universally condemned and with his preconceived ideas of the case it is strange that he would sit in judgment on it. Certainly there were sufficient grounds to warrant Lasley's being held for assault and battery, as every lawyer in the court-house agreed, but his attorney.

The community is very much stirred up over the matter, for they know Prof. Hubbard to be a law abiding man, peaceable and unobtrusive. Squire George P. Bright, who has known him for 33 years, says he never knew aught but good of him and the professor says he never had a personal difficulty before. Our people, with but few exceptions sympathize with him and characterize the assault with the most unqualified condemnation. An indignation meeting was talked of, but that would do no good further than to let the outside world know how such offenses and their punishment are regarded in our loving town.

The whole business, assault and result of trial, is a disgrace to the community.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Joseph J. Lawson and Miss May J. Coleman were married at the bride's grand-father's, Skelton Coleman, Wednesday.

—F. J. Jones, a widower of 51, and Miss Isaac Sweet, a maiden of 46 summers, were united heart and hand at the bride's mother's, near Moreland, Wednesday.

—The hour of the marriage of Mr. Monte Fox to Miss Annie Baughman was inadvertently omitted from the notice in last issue. It is 8 o'clock on the evening of the 15th, at the Christian church. Rev. W. E. Ellis will officiate, and after the knot is tied the couple, with their attendants and relatives, will repair to the home of the bride, where a reception will be given.

—Judge W. R. Carson received yesterday a telegram from his son, Mr. Jas. T. Carson, stating that he and Miss Sue Snyder, the very lovable daughter of Mr. G. R. Snyder, of Louisville, were quietly married on the evening before. It was not a surprise to Mr. Carson's friends hereabout, as the love affair had been one of long standing and it had been generally conceded that they would marry sooner or later. Mr. Carson first met his bride at Rock Castle Springs about six years ago and it was a genuine case of love at first sight. It was the writer's pleasure to be with them when Cupid's dart got in its work and it can be truly stated that a couple better suited could not have had the good fortune to meet. The bride is a stately blonde, lovely of disposition, a handsome woman and one thoroughly accomplished.

She will, we dare say, make a helpmeet that Mr. Carson will always feel proud of and a wife that he will love the more as the days go by. Mr. Carson is a splendid young business man, capable and popular. He has a remunerative position with Lowman's Sons &amp; Co., of Cincinnati, and probably sells as many goods as any man on the road. Mr. and Mrs. Carson left at once for Chicago, where they will remain awhile; from there they will go to several Eastern cities and as soon as their bridal tour is ended will make a visit to their relatives and friends here. The INTERIOR JOURNAL joins their many friends in wishing them a life of happiness and each at tache, from the editor down to the ill-used devil, will look with interest on the future of the happy young couple.

—To Delinquents.

It is against our custom and contrary to our desire to ask our patrons for money through the paper, but remittances are so slow and our need of money so great that we are forced to insist that everyone who owes us will settle at once. If your label does not read 10June92 you are in arrears and should send us the amount due to date with a year's pay in advance. This means you and everyone in arrears. We need the money.

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

